Are there any restrictions to cover?

- ! Detailed benefit limits can be found in the Terms and Conditions of Insurance.
- ! Treatment is restricted to the selected geographical area.
- ! Waiting periods apply for maternity care, childbirth, psychiatric treatment, psychotherapy and major dental services.

Where am I covered?

Insurance cover applies only within the selected geographical area.

- ✓ Worldwide including USA
- ✓ Worldwide excluding USA

What are my obligations?

- ✓ Insured persons must answer health questions contained in the application form completely and correctly.
- ✓ It is the policyholder's obligation to ensure compliance with local social security provisions and regulations for all insured persons under the insurance policy.
- ✓ Any insured person must provide the insurer all the information requested and allow the insurer to gather information needed in order to process claims (especially in terms of releasing medical professionals from their duty of confidentiality).
- ✓ The policyholder must inform the insurer immediately about any new address, especially any change in the country of residence, geographical area, any change of nationality or citizenship, or new name of the policyholder and any insured person.
- ✓ The policyholder or any insured person must report hospital treatment to the insurer immediately, at the latest within seven days after the treatment begins.
- ✓ The policyholder or any insured person must declare any claim and send the relevant invoices to the insurer immediately when the treatment has ended.
- ✓ The policyholder and the insured persons must make every effort to minimize any damage as far as possible and not do anything which may affect their convalescence.
- ✓ In case of termination, the policyholder needs to send to the insurer a proof that all insured persons have been informed about the termination of the insurance policy.

When and how do I pay?

- ✓ The first premium or premium instalment is due as soon as the insurer has accepted the application form for insurance by sending out the insurance policy.
- ✓ Premiums can be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually.
- ✓ Premiums can be paid by credit card, bank transfer or SEPA mandate (EU only).
- ✓ The premium is due in advance.

When does the cover start and end?

- ✓ Insurance cover starts on the date shown in the insurance policy (effective date), but not before the policyholder has paid the first premium and not before the end of the waiting periods.

The insurance coverage ends in the following situations:

- ✓ When the home country becomes the country of residence and the insurer does not agree to continue the insurance policy.
- ✓ Upon the death of an insured person.
- ✓ If the insurer makes a change to the Terms and Conditions of Insurance and the policyholder does not wish to renew the insurance policy.
- ✓ If the insurance policy is terminated or declared void.
- ✓ When the policyholder provides written notice that it wishes to end the insurance cover before the renewal date of the insurance policy.

How do I cancel the contract?

- ✓ The policyholder may give written notice prior to the renewal date if it does not wish to renew the insurance policy.
